

January 27, 1898

The death of little Louise Wegner, daughter of Herman Wegner, occurred Tuesday evening, and the funeral takes place from the Evangelical church at two o'clock this afternoon. The little girl was afflicted with consumption, and of course nothing could be done to stay its ravages. Mr. Wegner and his other children have the keenest sympathy of all in their affliction.